Activity Code	Description	Expense	Grants	Revenue
	Mentorship for Alums - Since 2007, Running Start has given 20,000+ young women the confidence, capabilities and connections they need to run and win. Running Start stays in close touch with its alums - 90% who run for office also win and 99% would recommend Running Start to a friend. In 2018 Running Start built a closed online network for its alums to connect and reconnect with each other and to find mentors. Running Start hosts events for alums to help them make strategic relationships and gain additional training on how to run for office. Running Start's alums come from its signature programs - the High School Program, Elect Her and the Congressional Fellowship - each of which are 10+ years old. Among Running Start's alums, about half are women of color, more than a quarter identify as LGBTQIA+, more than a quarter are first-generation college students, more than half are from low or medium income families and receive a scholarship if they are attending a program with a fee (although most of the programs are free) and more than half have a political ideology that matches with Pew data on millennial women's political preferences.	120,579		21,000
	Events - Running Start hosts about 15 events each year. They all focus on training young women to run for political office on a nonpartisan basis. In 2019, Running Start events included a showing of the play ANN featuring Jayne Atkinson Gill as Governor Ann Richards of Texas, an Elect Her training at the annual Reykjavik Women Leaders Global Forum in Iceland that was attended by 450 women leaders (including women heads of government and heads of state), an open house for the newly completed Congressional Fellowship house on Capitol Hill, an event at the British Embassy celebrating the new women Members of Congress, and a cross cultural celebration of women's leadership at the United Arab Emirates Embassy.	160,821		24,693
	Run with Running Start - The winner of Running Start's signature campaign competition for alums, Run with Running Start, becomes Running Start's ambassador for the following year. The ambassador promotes the #ILookLikeAPolitician message to encourage young women to believe that they can and should run for office because they are passionate about creating change on important issues. Run with Running Start finalists are selected based on their success in garnering financial or other support for their "campaign" in a preliminary round. Finalists are flown to Washington, DC, where they receive individual coaching and mentoring and then deliver stump speeches in front of an audience of several hundred Washington, DC insiders who vote to elect a winner. The ambassador travels and speaks on behalf of Running Start for a year.	57,762		0
